5-Day Safari Itinerary: Camping Adventure in Tanzania

This 5-day safari offers a comprehensive tour of some of Tanzania's most iconic wildlife parks, with a perfect mix of adventure and immersion in nature through camping. Enjoy the serenity and beauty of the African wilderness while observing a wide array of wildlife in their natural habitats. The cost provides an affordable and authentic safari experience, with everything you need for a memorable journey.

Destinations: Tarangire, Serengeti, Ngorongoro Crater, Lake Manyara

Accommodation: Camping (Shared)

Total Price: $1490 per person

Day 1: Arrival & Transfer to Tarangire National Park

Morning/Afternoon: You will be picked up from your accommodation in Arusha or Kilimanjaro Airport by your guide. After a warm welcome, you'll be driven to Tarangire National Park, about a 2-hour journey, which is famous for its massive herds of elephants and unique baobab trees.

Tarangire National Park: Tarangire offers diverse landscapes, from open savannah to dense acacia forests, and is home to an incredible variety of wildlife. Expect to see elephants, giraffes, zebras, and wildebeests, as well as an array of birds. The park is renowned for its large concentrations of elephants, often seen grazing or bathing in the river.

Camping: Tonight, you'll camp at a designated public campsite within the park, offering you an immersive experience in the African wilderness. Enjoy the stars above the savannah and listen to the sounds of nature.

Day 2: Tarangire to Serengeti National Park

Morning: After a hearty breakfast, you'll embark on a morning game drive in Tarangire. Explore more of the park, looking out for predators such as lions, leopards, and cheetahs. In the late morning, you'll begin your journey to Serengeti National Park, which will take about 5-6 hours, with a stop for lunch en route.

Serengeti National Park: Upon arrival in the Serengeti, you'll immediately be immersed in one of the world's most famous wildlife hotspots. The Serengeti is known for its vast plains and annual migration of wildebeests, zebras, and gazelles. The park is also home to predators, such as lions, cheetahs, and leopards.

Camping: Set up camp at a public campsite within the Serengeti. You'll have a great chance of hearing nocturnal animals in the distance as you relax by the campfire.

Day 3: Full Day in Serengeti

Morning: Enjoy an early morning game drive to experience the Serengeti at its most active, when predators hunt and animals roam the plains. After the drive, return to camp for breakfast.

Midday: In the afternoon, you'll head out for a second game drive, which may include visiting the Seronera area, known for its high concentration of wildlife. You'll likely spot lions lounging under trees, elephants feeding, and maybe even a leopard in a tree.

Camping: Return to your Serengeti campsite in the evening for dinner and relaxation around the campfire under the stars.

Day 4: Serengeti to Ngorongoro Crater

Morning: After breakfast, depart for Ngorongoro Crater, which is a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the most breathtaking areas in Tanzania. The journey to Ngorongoro takes about 3-4 hours, and along the way, you'll be able to take in the stunning scenery of the highlands.

Ngorongoro Crater: The Ngorongoro Crater is often referred to as the "Garden of Eden" due to its rich biodiversity. The crater floor is teeming with wildlife, including buffalo, lions, elephants, and rhinos. Enjoy a game drive within the crater, exploring the lush grasslands, forests, and lakes that provide a unique environment for wildlife.

Camping: Camp overnight at a public campsite near the crater. You'll be in an excellent location to rest before another exciting day of wildlife viewing.

Day 5: Ngorongoro to Lake Manyara & Return to Arusha

Morning: After a delicious breakfast, you'll drive to Lake Manyara National Park, which is known for its flamingo-filled lakes, lush forest, and tree-climbing lions. Enjoy a morning game drive to explore the park's diverse ecosystems. You might see hippos, baboons, and herds of elephants in addition to the famous tree-climbing lions.

Afternoon: After the game drive, you'll break for lunch before starting your journey back to Arusha. You will arrive by late afternoon or early evening, concluding your safari experience.
